

Dear _____,

Greetings from Georgia. I hope this letter finds you and your family in good health and overflowing with God's blessings.

I am writing this letter to you to let you know about a Missions Trip to Guatemala that I hope to be taking this summer (7-14 July, 2016) and to give you the opportunity of partnering with me on this venture. Our church sponsors a school and church in Guatemala City and the families that we focus our love on live at the city dump. For generations many of these people have eked out a living by scavenging trash and converting it into wearable art, but the fact remains that this area is severely poverty stricken and their needs are great.

Our mission team will: present the Gospel to families who live at the city dump; construct houses and improve facilities; teach Bible classes in the school that our church supports; deliver food and goods to the needy; and door-to-door soul-winning evangelism. Our primary goal is to save the lost.

But to make this goal a reality, I am inviting you to partner with me. I particularly need your partnership in two key areas: prayer and financial support.

First and foremost, I need your prayers. Will you please commit to keeping me and the other team members in prayer daily? Please pray for our safety, good health, spiritual growth and God's blessings, grace and mercy.

Secondly, I need your financial support. The estimated cost for the trip is $1500, so any donation you make will be warmly accepted and gratefully appreciated. Our Missions Committee has created a form to make it easier for you to contribute and I am including its contents below for your use as deemed appropriate.

Thank you, in advance, for your love and help,

With love in Christ,

Missions Partner: _____, Guatemala, July 2016
(Please print partner's name)

_____ Yes, I commit to pray daily for _____, especially during the July Missions Trip.

_____ Yes, I commit to a gift of $_____ weekly/monthly/one-time donation (please circle one) and understand that so long as my check is made payable to Ivy Creek Baptist Church the full amount of my gift is tax deductible.

(Signature) _____ (Date) _____